See yourself fall through the cracks that lay under you,
Notice you're former self wait as you drift away,
I'm getting really scared,
I don't know what to do,
But it feels so good,
I'm losing all control,
Of what I say or do,
It's never better than,

We fall down... on and on,
We fall down... waste away,

Searching for answers to questions subconsciously,
Weather they're right or wrong everything seems so clear,
Here comes another wave... I'm taking off again,
So won't you come with me,
I feel it happening, we're becoming one,
So now you'll understand,

We fall down... on and on,
We fall down... waste away,
We fall down... on and on,
We fall down... waste away,

Crawling on all fours,
I'm laughing at monsters,
That sneak up behind me,
And pull me again,

We fall down... on and on,
We fall down... waste away,
We fall down... on and on,
We fall down... waste away,

This is not me, this is not me,
On and on,
This is what I'm really after,
This is not me, this is not me,
This is why I... on and on.
