"Don't tell me"

Alright

Oh!

Yeah

Alright

Hey

Why should anyone tell me how to wear my hair?

They say I should try to fit in

But I don't care

I'm living my life

Just the way I like

They say I get a little too loud

Try to push me in a box

Over analyze

But I'm never gunna turn it down

They say stop but I say go

Don't tell me

What I gotta do

Cuz it's up to me

It's not up to you

If I wanna go crazy

No one's gunna stop me tonight

Oh no

Yeah

Hey

Why should I bend into what I'm not?

They say someday I might get a real job

I'm not about to compromise who I am

Just so I can bend right in

They wanna see a cardboard cutout

Well that's a fight they just can't win

They say "Yes" and I say "NO"

Don't tell me

What I gotta do

Who I wanna be

It's for me to choose

No more rules

Cuz I just don't have the time

Don't tell me

What I gotta do

Cuz it's up to me

It's not up to you

If I wanna go crazy

No one's gunna stop me tonight

They can say what they like

I don't hear it all

It's my life to live it

Live it just the way I want

I'm never holding back

I'm done not standing out

They say "Never" and I say "Right now!"

Don't tell me

What I gotta do

Who I wanna be

It's for me to choose

No more rules

Cuz I just don't have the time

Don't tell me

What I gotta do

Cuz it's up to me

It's not up to you

If I wanna go crazy

No one's gunna stop me tonight

Oh no

Don't tell me
