"Gotta Pull Myself Together"

Now that I know
Why did I doubt you
I let you go
Now I'm without you
Thought It was cool
Imagination
I was the fool
Fell to temptation

But you won't see me cry
Cause it's no good
Since you said goodbye
And now honey I gotta stop
Gotta start pickin up
Gotta pull myself together
Honey I'm breakin up
Now that we ain't makin up
Just gotta pull myself together

I was so sure
It wouldn't upset me
So I closed the door
Why did you let me
I lost control
Out for sensation
I'm in the cold
