What is happening
The fight goes on yet no one sees the nature of our enemies

Just look back through history
We've never stopped at victory
Our domination breeds their envy

And then a message came one day
but everybody looked away
That was the morning of regret
That was the morning of reprieve
I can't believe the reasons we received from who's governing

I don't know if anyone is listening
Regret is all we'll have if we don't try to lose our alibis
The wool has been pulled over all our eyes
I'm sick of all these lies
So here I go...

Misery loves company
Let's end this herd mentality and come together logically

So if all you love is you Get the fuck out, this aint for you You're not worthy of our country

And then a message came one day
but everybody looked away
That was the morning of regret
That was the morning of reprieve
I can't believe the reasons we
received from who's governing

I don't know if anyone is listening
Regret is all we'll have if we don't try to lose our alibis
The wool has been pulled over all our eyes
I'm sick of all these lies
So here I go...

I wonder should we grieve, or should we celebrate
If we don't come together, freedom will disintegrate
All I do is think, All I do is feel... and I'LL NEVER TURN MY BACK ON YOU AGAIN

I don't know if anyone is listening
Regret is all we'll have if we don't try to lose our alibis
The wool has been pulled over all our eyes
I'm sick of all these lies
So here I go...
