I'd really like to think that you were thinking of me so close to you & yet you seem to be so far away (so far away, so far) until i just could not see you by breaking away, you've broken the rules by breaking my heart, you loved like a fool by breaking away, you made me give in by making me lose when i thought i could win you're just a man, the kind of man with modern problems can't rest his heart, he's got to go & be so far away (so far away, so far) so far away, yeah but this time i've something to say by breaking away, broken the rules breaking my heart, loved just like a fool breaking away, oh, you went & made me give in just by taking away all the love that you promised to give

(i saw the writing) clearly on the wall it told me (watch your heart) it hurts when you call (and yet, don't want to lose) i could not give in i was lost in the fight, i just wanted to win (breaking away) aww baby (broken the rules) (breaking my heart, you loved just like a fool) (breaking away) well baby i'm still loving you (made me give in) with all the pain you put me through can't you see?

by breaking away, you've broken the rules by breaking my heart, you loved just like a fool by breaking away, you made me give in

i hear your name (over & over & over & over) i don't know why 'cause you're to blame ooh, wee baby, come back baby, save me baby save this broken heart breaking away

my baby breaking away, you've broken the rules breaking away
