darkness is falling now,
black wings of night unfold, turn your head away from what you know, and fight for all your worth!

brought into the land of nast, by the colden souls inside, i was granted freedom taste,
to become the chosen one,
turn allaway,
from the things,
that i used to know,
my old self was thrown away to let a knew me show!

breaking the dark of night, moving through the dawn of light,
got it all away,
from yesterday,
till a new era's in sight!
unlock the heart within,
let it shed its bonds and soar, rising up in flight,
through the light of night, i'm a prisoner no more!
