Drowning in this ocean of monumental waves
Far away from the cyberian memorycard-saves
Abducted by the currents of my awakening
Twisted faces smiling, evoke a quake within Emerging from a world below, degenerating rapidly
Claws of reality's got me now, stuck here eternally

An easy target, an easy prey
I am exceeding my domains

If i'll find a way, that leads me out of here
... i cannot stay, have to overcome my fear
Wasn't quite prepared for the hostility outside
Well-done, medium, rare - i would have been eaten alive

Can't stand this pressure
Please, get me out of here

An easy target, an easy prey
I am exceeding my domains

I leave this place so dark and sinister
It's too late - the sun has set forever
As the world keeps turning - then fade away into eternity
