In nights of lust, a moment of condemned love
At forgiveness of perpetual and immortal lives
Days pass and still in darkness, the hours disappear
With no sense, moulding your godless

Slaughter memories of beginning and end
Dries the moon' face with his pale hand
Your life is now our... the time has come
Open your eyes and see... the sings

Mountains and oceans are waiting for your memory
Every sound is eclipsed by the echo of your voice
That flame, takes me, away from reality... from reality

Make me see the love in the heat of pain
As arcane principles of forgiveness
I know what I see through your truth
Hidden between your red lips

Open your eyes and see... the signs!
