I guess I'm stuck in this one way channel with you
Fighting hope there's some other way
I won't depend on the things that I thought you could do
Finding now secrets I never knew
When I let you into my heart
Even though you told me not
Where we go one
We go all
Where you go I can not follow
I said I lost you somewhere down
And it seems like this needs to be said
I loved you better then
Anyone could ever have
And I swore that I'd never forget
All the feelings
We felt we could never have
This is no time for you to feel bad
I'm beginning to see the strength
I swore I always had
All the memorizes trapped in my head
But I still don't miss you yet
I guess it's hard now I'm trying to break through to you
Never thought I would have to say
I don't pretend to like all the things that you say
Now your wrong and you could never be
When I let you into my heart
Even though you told me not
Where we go one
We go all
Where you go I can not follow
I said I lost you somewhere down
And it seems like this needs to be said
I loved you better then
Anyone could ever have
And I swore that I'd never forget
All the feelings
We felt we could never have
This is no time for you to feel bad
I'm beginning to see the strength
I swore I always had
All the memorizes trapped in my head

But I still don't miss you yet
Miss you yet miss you yet miss you yet
Miss you yet miss you yet miss you yet
Miss you yet miss you yet
