[VERSE 1: Scarface]

You was playin when you was sayin you was ready, I'm knowin' you ain't mean it when you told me you was tired of life and just wanted to leave it you were drinkin, so I ain't really pay it no attention, took you back to your crib and dropped you off with the intention of gettin with this Asian chick
I've been offerin (this chick) somethin exquisite,
I had to spit that game cuz she was vicious,
I'm hoppin back on 6-10 punchin the drop
On my way out to her house I started noticing cops, Somethin tellin me to turn around and follow these dudes,
Normally I wouldn't consider but out of the blue I'm bustin a U
I get off where they get off at Well-familiar with these streets, this where I came up at Roadblocks, yellow tape, "a crime scene" they say,
What the fk just happened? I just left this placeâ€¦
I get out and started walkin askin Frog, "What's up?"
Lookin at me dazed like, "Face, it's all fked upâ€¦" I move a little closer tryin to see who it is then I saw his baby mama in tears holdin his kidsâ€¦

[VERSE 2]

And it was then it finally hit me
I'm standing here nervous as I can be
It was nothing that can prepare me for what i'm finna see
I'm praying this is a dream and i'm bout to awake
But the closer I got the more I realize fate Wasn't fair to change for me
And why would I think so
My homie had a date with death
He had to make though
I'm feelin eerie, I'm liftin up the yellow tape
By the time I get to the scene they rollin this away
I wonder whats under this sheet, my knees get weak
To the point i had to take me a seat

This shits deep
When they put a nigga down that you was raised around
What was once a minor statement's turnin' major now Never woulda thought in years that my homie was suicidal
Had it all money and kids and a wife that read the bible
They say its life and death in the slum
He had his reasons I shoulda believed him
Anotha soul no longer breathin' Hate to say it but this one been heavy on my conscience
My nonchalantness just took a life over some nonsense

[VERSE 3]

And everybody thinkin' its murder, but homicide sayin self-inflicted
By the way the body was sitting, brains in the kitchen
Who coulda predicted
But the detectives who was fishin'
Fucked up that the family had to see dad in his position
All i remember was us doin what we did
To survive in these streets where we lived
We was kids growin up in this environment
Nothing but trouble
You either struggled or you hustled
Folded the bubble
Grade school til we dropped out, we had a plan
We was either finna be rich or die like a man
We did it all for the love of the hood, every journey
Imagine seein' your dawg lifeless across a gurney
I wonder what was goin on
You shoulda said that you was feelin' mad
I coulda talked you outta that
But never will i see you again
Nor will your kids
Nor will your family or your friends
Its the end
Not even words I write in this song
Can right that wrong
My nigga is gone and life goes on
