Crooked I this is an induction you only talk about balling pocket in eruption rappers talking bout balling my life is in this discussion them niggas really ain't nothing look it all the shit I'm crushin I'm viming in lava like the flow is a sick corruption I fill it with hustling corruption in every pitch I'm f*cking I fill it with thugging struggling in heavy pistol talking in luxury trucks call it double dutch every chick gonna jump in

Respiratory machine that's when I let that bitch breathe these niggas wanna get ralic with the fire armaholic call it mmoney on the ground wanna chop a knock you want your wallet call it a Idrolics winnin your palalama if you in the air people stepping over your body 'cause don't nobody care about you that ass I'm that ass in the game bang capital platinum gone rappers know took that 'cause we snatchin hoes and I pay my dues as far as rapping and trapping goes but if Eminem don't help me go platinum then he's back to clapping hoe and riding dirty while be around the bush with three fellows four guns and eleven pounds of cushin my baby mama is bima wanna ex this profession but maybe I'm a dreamer that inception direction never thought I get my change up like this again if you hear a click again I answer hang up they listen in ease dropping the streets and these watching the E and receive .. release me with these options to thieve get we poppin over tree so I keep rocking he cocking till I can no longer breathe keep the. beat knocking and let em know that this is slater house gang bang mommy suck the dick of a rider that's why she got a higher sperm counting my seaming in her saliva

Respiratory machine
I had to let that bitch breathe these niggas talking at beef life talking the street life should be talking peace life my pistol eats life
