For those dead gone, yeah Pull out a little little hard, show respect, yo

See you on the other side, Down goes another one, Louie shades on my face, tears dropping under them Another mother sun shot down, living troublesome Grab this dead body out the coffin started hugging him Please god why? I heard it in the cry, she collapsed on the casket, put murder in my eyes I turn it when outside, grab the … in my ride, if murder move in the circle, the circle will survive

See you on the other side It's hard for me to face it, your number in cell, it's hard for me to erase it Only thing I can do is get the 2 extra Glocks

Can't even say the name detective may connect the dots When they come to hood murder, I don't respect the cops Put your case in the … right next to pops

Biggy small's gone … don't laugh so respect, homie, it could be you See you on the other side

Listen to your heart, when he's calling for you Listen to your heart, that's nothing else you can do I don't know where you're going and I don't know why Listen to your heart before you tell him goodbye Ok, bye, bitch.
