

Normal Generation? "BREATHE YOU"

Visit "BREATHE YOU" on MotoLyrics.com you know what you do and you did it right you know what you say and you said it right you know what you've chosen, you chose them right

I breathe the light the time makes me ache and the flesh makes me die

wanna breathe you

I hate separation cause I know its frustration

wanna breathe you

there's no air I'm needing this whole world of lying

your heart is what I seek come closer than my skin

love you wanna breathe you mayday mayday, from the outsidership rescue base in heaven ready to transmit some things crept into my mind gotta find out what's right need a download from your Bible website they keep saying you're just too stupid they keep saying nobody loves ya they keep saying you will never make it they keep saying he made a mistake no and I see these are lies in me yeah cause he said "I love you child" I'm chosen and called by him so what do they want, he has a plan so what do they want, I don't believe them anymore what do they want get out of my door these lies plagued my life now I believe and I see my destination changed and truth set me free
