(Chorus)

Hurry Up Hurry Up
Everywhere I look around it seems everybody is doing it
Hurry Up Hurry Up
Magazines, movie screens, my friends are always pushing it
Hurry up, why don't u get down
I wanna wait but the crowd is singing
Hurry up, hurry up, hurry up, hurry up, hurry up

(Verse 1)

The kids in town, they get around
I feel like I'm the only one who cares, oh yeah
The shelter shed, wat's in the head
It's happening everywhere like they just don't care, yeah
Madonna's kiss with Britney Spears
No wonder all my friends are getting on, oh
It's all a game, they have no shame
They play it like there is no right from wrong

(Pre-chorus)

Paris Hilton has a video to prove it
Janet Jackson showed herself to the world and Every channel on tv
Sex is everywhere to see
It's all over MTV
Stop filling my head

(Chorus)

(Verse 2)

I remember when, I had a friend
She had a good upbringing seemed to have it all, yeah
There was a guy, thought he was fly
He was dared for fun to give her a call, yeah
They had a date, she thought it was fate
Before she knew it she had gone too far
She couldn't have, she felt so bad
She wished she'd never got into his car, oh yeah

(Pre-chorus)

All her friends are saying did u really do it
Now it's done, you gotta wonder what she's thinking
Am I pregnant, should I lie
I'm so scared I wanna cry
What was I thinking

(Chorus)

(Bridge)

Shoulda waited, now she's hated
On by the boy that she dated
Left alone now, can't go home now
Tell her parents that her girl has a girl of her own
Has she done it, can she have it
Who, yeah, why, heh, Oh...

(breakdown)

Slow down, Slow it down
Everywhere I look around
Everybody's doing it
Slow down, Slow it down
Wanna wait
But the crowd is singing

(Chorus)

Oh
Hurry up, Hurry up
Everywhere I look around
Hurry Up Hurry up
Seems like everybody's doing it
Hurry up, why don't u get down
Magazines and movie screens
Hurry up, hurry up, hurry up, hurry up, hurry up
My friends are always pushing me
Hurry up, hurry up
