feels like no one knows what it's like to be me sometimes I fall so far that I just can't get out

can't find the light
at the end of a tunnel
I'm falling down
how do I

runaway runaway
from the tears
and all the thoughts I had
runaway runaway
made my smile
I wish I could just
runaway runaway
from the man inside
that makes me fall
runaway runaway

tell me why she look at him oh what can I do
why must I feel ashamed ooh voice inside of me

runaway runaway
from the tears
runaway runaway
made my smile
I wish I could just
runaway runaway
from the man inside

sad and lonely
like I'm caught in a storm wish the waves
would strike me no more

thunder and lightning always come back again
just when I'm almost warm

runaway runaway
from the tears
runaway runaway
made my smile
I wish I could just
runaway runaway
from the man inside

runaway runaway
from the man inside

ooh
runaway runaway
