A day that takes eternity
Or a Year that seems to fly
It feels as if the past has stopped
The future passed by
If I could turn back yesterday
If I could make you mine
Would have said the things I couldnt say
If I cout turn back time
But I know things now that I never though I'd see
I Could have been the one you wanted me to be

[Chorus]

Take me back through the time that's over
Take me back to days gone by
Wish that I could take you back and feel you standing
by my side
Make me more than just a memory
Someone that you cant ignore
Take me back to when you loved me yesterday
To the day before

I wonder where we could have been
If we had read beetween the lines
I should have done things differently
We should have seen the signs
If time with you were standing still But years could pass us by
I could have said the things I meant to say
I'd never need to try
But I know things now that I never though I would
I could have been "the man you though you understood

[Chorus]

Take me back through the time that's over
Take me back to days gone by
Wish that I could take you back and feel you standing
by my side
Make me more than just a memory
Someone that you cant ignore
Take me back to when you loved me yesterday
To the day before

Through the pleasure and the pain
If I'd had the chance
You know that I would do it all again

[Chorus]

Take me back through the time that's over
Take me back to days gone by
Wish that I could take you back and feel you standing
by my side
Make me more than just a memory
Someone that you cant ignore
Take me back to when you loved me yesterday
To the day before
