Sally folded on the ride home,
A drunken driver hit the passenger side,
And the ambulance came but the sirens that rang couldn't make it to the battlefield to say their goodbyes so they sang

Bang Bang, Bang Bang, goes a beautiful smile, Bang Bang, Bang Bang, there goes an innocent child
And we never do think that tomorrow might be..
It's not my time it's not my time

Jack was loaded with bread,
Let the sin of money go to his head,
With a kiss of the coin, passed his lips down his throat, with a gasping for air Jack fell down and he choked and we sing

Bang bang, Bang Bang, goes a father of three Bang Bang, Bang Bang, there goes a husband of five And we never do think that tomorrow might be, it's not my time it's not my time Bang Bang Bang Bang, In the blink of an eye, Bang Bang Bang Bang, No one ever thinks it's their time
And I never do think, that's the problem with me, it's not my time it's not my time

It's not my time it's not my time,
It's not my time, It's not your time, It's not our time

"It's not my time", go those famous last words, "Still got ten miles" go those famous last words and we never do think that tonight it might be, "it's not my time it's not my time",

And we sang Bang Bang Bang Bang Bang Bang
