(Here we go)

How was I to know what fate would bring to me, oh Seeing you sitting there all alone silently (silently, c'mon silently)
Hoping you'd look my way
So baby, I could say, girl

What do I have to do to get closer to you
'Cos I would do anything to make you mine Near or far just (bring it on) to be where you are Tell me who would have thought I'd find love on the Northern Line (Northern Line in the house, one time)

Every day I see you here Girl, I know that you're the one (you're the one, you're the one)
Better make my move this time
Before the chance is gone (this chance, first time)
And when this train departs 9when this train departs)
It's gonna lead you to my heart

What do I have to do to get closer to you (all right)
'Cos I would do anything to make you mine (you're mine, you're mine)
Near or far just to be where you are
Tell me who would've thought I'd find love on the Northern Line (Northern Line, pump it up)

How can I convince you
Your next stop should be mine (Northern Line, one time)
Ooh baby, (bring it on), na, na, na, na, na, na, ooh (bring it on, bring it on) Ooh, oh, na, na, na, na, na, na, (hurry up, pump it up, this time, check it out, check it out, c'mon y'all)
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

What do I have to do (ooh, yeah) to get closer to you
'Cos I would do anything to make you mine (bring it on, bring it on)

Near or far just to be (just to be) where you are
Tell me who would've thought I'd find love on the Northern Line (bring it on, baby, take it up)

What do I have (have to do) to do to get closer to you
'Cos I would do anything (I would do anything) to make you mine (Northern Line, one time)
Near or far just to be where you are
Tell me who would've thought
I'd find love on the Northern Line

What do I have (ooh, yeah) to do to get (here we go) closer to you
'Cos I would do anything to make you mine (you're mine, c'mon)
Near or far just to be where you are
Tell me who would've thought (ooh, yeah)
I'd find love on the Northern Line (ah, yeah)
