There is something amiss in this house
And I'm trying to find my way back (through the senseless emotion)
The ones that have been and has been
(Its done), time to make him change the beat

And the drum starts playing
(I noticed I am singing)
But there's still something missing
(Not kissing), Not lip sync
Not big but small
Our hearts have stopped for this (have stopped for this)

So now I just start to play your game
And you just only make me wait
Forever
And Ever

Being the only man
In front of a woman's clan
I suffer
With laughter

(Lets get the party started)

Obviously
Never coming back
Somethings missing
I can never find it back

Seriously
Bitter gourd is tasty
Somethings missing
I can never find it back

There is something amiss in this song

So how people start to make a change
I'm asking you a silly thing
You standing right in my range
I never

Playing me right out is not fair
So just start hitting the snare
That guy have just got my hair
Whatever

You guys just start acting cool
Like the way we use to do
Stealing ideas like a fool
Retardeds

(Lets get the party started)

Obviously
Never coming back
Somethings missing
I can never find it back

Seriously
Somethings missing

Obviously
Somethings missing

Seriously
Somethings missing

There is something amiss in this song

Obviously
Never coming back
Somethings missing

Seriously
Somethings missing
