Firstly we began with pain
And no heart stood still, no anyway
Then we lost our half-loved home
Time stood still, not asking "Tell Me Why"

Then our lovely little sonic came to play
Further we built up a girl and discussed to start delay
Any song which we could play

And in no case, we will change us
Our style will be the same

Now these are the things I'd like to show
I hope that they are interesting for you
But if you don't like them we don't care about
We will keep on our way - there's no doubt
