When sometimes life is going wrong,
when there a storm is coming.
Then you could either run away,
But let me tell you something.
When help lies not around to find.
When air burns with such anger,
then you could stick your head in ground,
or you visit Allison if you dare and then:

[Chorus:]

Listen to Allison,
She takes the pain away,
she makes your brain O.K.
So Hey, listen to Allison,
she helps you night and day.
Her help arrives without delay.

She has been always there for us
and no one knows the reason.
We can't imagine time without this mystic tiny lady!
She is the one who knows listening,
when she is talking 'bout your fears,
when you're in big trouble, then:

[Chorus]
