I heard a voice inside me
It told me that I was hungry
I looked around, I couldn't see some food
So I went into, into a restaurant

I found a table that was free
The other people stared at me
I got the card and realized
The prize was too high
They kicked me out and said "Good Bye"

Stop bad mood - and eat some healthy fast food
Cheap and good - come let us eat some fast food
After that - you will see, that there is nothing to regret

I heard a voice inside me
It told me that was happy
It was the best that I could do
Burger King - you are, yes you're surely the better way to go

When you see this restaurant
You'll be fine and you will come
Over and over again
