You come around, I close my eyes lay on the ground and I'm eating up your lies so hard I try to fade you out the only button you have makes yon loud

And now you're on, the tape is running your words are crashing down you know it better, and all your words are gold

Yon hate my friends, and you also hate it when fun never ends
I drink too much, I talk too less and when I try to do it you give me the rest
You know it better what really matters!
Iron my life !!!
You ironed hard and almost all but one part of me has survived I dig a hole, It's just for you Goodbye, and thanks for all the years

I hear the silence, I can't believe it did my favourite dream came true ?
and now the-re's no one who comes to trie to...
