Jack in the box, me in big trouble.
Hope is not enough, my box is small.
Close to the wall and not easy to unfold.
Living in an envelope and I don't have to much scope.
I need your help, was disappointed from myself.
Here I am - I'm so unstable. In a house with rotten bricks.

[Chorus:]

Build me up and show me visions of a place,
where the weak are not the waste of human race -
Pull me up and let me see the stuff above -
Once in live I want to say the word "Enough!"
Build me up!

Where are you now?

I need some hands now to turn the engine on - and I'm out of fuel, I need full tanks now.
To move forwards in time -
and to stay on the right line, to leave this desert sane.

[Chorus:]

Build me up and show me visions of a place,
where the weak are not the waste of human race -
Pull me up and let me see the stuff above -
Once in live I want to say the word "Enough!"
Build me up!

[repeat / 1st low]
