Hello little girl, are you sure to know my faces
I saw you there, but you ignored me
I stood over there, think I can't remember all things

Cause you're gone, couldn't avoid your death
I'm just alone, leave me alone in this cold world
I'll never see my girl, an old forgotten dream
Now I'm looking forward to build my favourite woman
Who I'll love and never lose no more

Marylin Oh Marylin - What have they done to you Marylin Oh Marylin - Is it really true
Marylin Oh Marylin

Starting to build arms of wood and modern plastic
You look fine, my girl, my wonderful girl
I just used a photograph, that I got from her daughter
Who'd like to see her young mom again
She's gone away, far away, plastic gill,
You will replace that mom, who'll never see the sun again
I will give your live back to you, it would make me so proud
'Cause life without you means suicide
