Daily ignorance - since you pretend to be a moral man without a chance
For all who care about Forced by ignorance - the endings of our circles won't surely reach their aim
A result of humans brain, a result of no one's brain

I'm not scared, of the frippery they do, I will declare A decline of mother's child and all that I may see

I don't care 'bout people, I don't care about a vulgar scene
Only superficiality - who's helping me

More 'bout the future, as we see a lot of rookies Who don't care about all
A nature which is nude, a black scene no one's nude
