I can see you anytime now, anytime now.
You'll be waiting in my dreams now, anytime.

You said "don't you dare watch, I can't handle it,
So close your eyes everything's fine."
(Close your eyes)
I said "I'm here for you,
So close your eyes for one last time"
(Close your eyes)

You said if I fell, you would be there
But now you're gone
And all I do is stare til I see you here
I can see you anytime now, in my dreams now, anytime
now

So close your eyes
