Kick it around one more day
I'm coming home, we're on our way
Wasting time, now help me up
Pat you down
Just keep the truck on moving bound
I'm dead

Moving west, Mississippi
It's times like this I wish you were with me
And it's the place where I might find
The one thing on my mind
And it's that's slow and constant ride
I'm going home

Crash for the night
Rise up at the first sign of light
Find the place where we can be
And live life comfortably
And find the one thing on my mind
And it's a slow and constant ride
I'm going home

And it's a slow and constant ride
To get the one thing off my mind
