Waiting for the sun
Another day of recess
Another day for regrets
Looking for the answers
Searching for a reason
Something to believe in

Tell me the last time
You didn't regret your first line
Show me a way out
So I can get on
And on and on

Bleeding out
There's no confidence
There's no time for this
What it comes down on; there's no place for this
I'll take one last hit
Find a way, take a way
Get me home with one last breath
And wave your stained white flag

Tell me the last time
You didn't regret your first line
Show me a way out
So I can get on
And on and on
