Ladies and Gentlemen

We're gonna ask you for some fanfare...the band fanfare because...ladies and gentlemen...sting has always gone ahead of itself.

They have done it again and again and again.

I remember the year they brought in the fat boys they were hotter then ten thousand fire sides.

And if you know...and if you enjoy hip-hop...if you want one of the coldest brothaz out of North America...a brotha that gave you a song like

Juicy...

[Bigge] Uh-huh...

[Jamaican Host]

You hear a crew in Jamaica with something that goes like this

"Who the heck is this

Paging me in the morning

At the crack of dawning"

[Bigge] Yeauh!

[Jamaican Host]

Please welcome...for the first time...in Sting 96...Please welcome (welcome...welcome)

The Notorious....the Notorious...B.I.G...AKA bigge!
