A quiet place far away in the center of my heart
Sheltered by the solitude like my daddy's arms
Seeking and knowing I will find Resting these weary eyes
Leaving my deepest fears behind
Under the endless sky, I lift my heart up high and Chorus:
Father You breathe and I hear You whispering
And Your mercy covers me
Father You breathe and Your presence fills the air

And I find my solice there
Here is where peace abides with all that I desire
You lay me down in luscious green to rest when I am tired
Savior You meet me where I am
Here on earthen floor
Dying You gave me life again emptied of all but love and that would've been enough but (Chorus)
(repeat twice)
