In these troubled times, today
Everyone just falls to grey
Burned out, blurry photographs
Eluding to the simpler past

Through her eyes, the world is fire
City noises form the choir
She finds her peace in melody

October leaves us fallen red
As we fall far from grace
The rain has stopped
The air is dead

I reserve the energy
For everything that's in between
Once a dreamer and a clown
Nine to Five has watered down

[Chorus]

And who have I become
And who have I ever been
Where has the passion gone
Gone and lost my way again

Give me faith
Give me time
Give me space
Give me life...
