Noone)

When my lady walks in the room

The lights come on to her sweet perfume

I didn't know the devils by her side

There I stood, I had nothing to hide

My love could teach the blind to see

My love's the wildest mystery

My love said she'd be the one

Now I know

Baby you're a liar

I wasn't watching for the danger signs

And I never read between the lines

She says 'C'mon boy can you do your thing'

So I turn around still wondering

When my love dances she makes me cry

My love dances with me tonight

My love said she'd be the one

Now I know

Baby you're a liar etc.

But I'm still burning with desire

With the look of a panther

I got lost in your jungle
No I can't help myself again
No I can't help myself
Baby you're a liar
My love could teach the blind to see
My love's a wildest mystery
My love said she'd be the one
Now I know
Baby you're a liar etc.
Nut I'm still burning with desire
You're a liar
Baby you're a liar
You're bin known to veer from the truth
Lies
You're telling me lies
