They say we're freaks of nature living a dream
We're on our own, we'll never move with the stream
The sky's the limit and we're finally free
Get ready ?cause we're leaving ground

Chorus:

Just don't look down
We're scratching the ceiling of the world
Making love to the skyline
Boy don't look down
We're scratching the ceiling of the world
Shadows climbing the moonlight

Now time has come to let the world see the love
We're racing up to watch the clouds from above
I always knew that we would rise with the occasion
And make it to a higher ground

Chorus:

Just don't look down
We're scratching the ceiling of the world
Making love to the skyline
Boy don't look down
We're scratching the ceiling of the world
Shadows climbing the moonlight
