i'm the man you used to be a man in pain and misery and everything you did was fake and all i have is what i take and as a boy you made me see i had to choose my destiny i can't believe you made me bleed i just want you to set me free from you to me i just want you to set me free. set me free, from you to me. i just want you to set me free admit your guilt, admit your lies with a chance oh, a chance i'd fly away from you and away from here traveling life without a fear a life of crime and of hate how much more can i take your path in life is history so please unleash me from being you unleash me i'm telling you don't face me, i'm facing you un-leash me i can't be you when i ask of you there's no reply you stripped me of my thoughts my thoughts inside from my hopes and from my dreams life isn't always what it seems (x5)

unleash me from being you
