Please don't tell me anymore
There's a bloodstain on the floor
So many ways that we should walk
But nothing more to talk about

Too many memories got smashed
Too many minds have changed to cash
Aptitudes were used as fuel
And losers considered cool

Illusions of our healthy sky
He just conceals a distant why
He has the power to release
And don't grow up by elbow grease

She didn't have to be asked twice
The tv-lies shined in her eyes
The answers she was giving me
Were not her own - community

Not what you see is what you are
Mirrors distorting minds so far
Aren't those shadows on the wall
Just a projection of it all

Illusions of our healthy sky
He just conceals a distant why
He has the power to release
And don't grow up by elbow grease

She didn't have to be asked twice
The tv-lies shined in her eyes
The answers she was giving me
Were not her own - community

Illusion turning into lies
Some wise men got the knowledge why
Those, who know, they won't explain
And if they would, it were in vain

The black's regarded to be white
What's on the left turns to be right

There's need to brush the doubt aside
To make a stroke against the tide

There is a bloodstain on the shore
Shame on those that felt so sore
The fury had to be released
By turning into elbow grease

She didn't have to be asked twice
The tv-lies shined in her eyes
The answers she was giving me
Were not her own - community
