When I awoke
a man wearing black is between my legs tongueing my vagina lapping me like a thirsty dog...

Through my revulsion
I feel some mild pleasure then the man wearing black stands pulling my hair from his teeth but I noticed nothing dangled between his legs He was a female down there-and from his vagina came a tongue followed by many fingers...

I awoke again this time I'm chained to an altar There are six women wearing habits around me and they are cutting their own throats...
Through my revulsion
I feel some mild pleasure
then they fall upon me soaking me in arterial blood I thought they were dead but then they stood the gashes in their throats yawning and from each gaping tear comes a penis followed by many tongues

I entered their world not to worship but to feel pleasure through the darkness of revulsion and as I lay down to masturbate among the gore of many animals I realize I am a woman but when I entered their world
I WAS A MAN!
