

Nuclear Death "Moribund"

No one plays here
they see only darkness
and when I eat with my friends
I can smell them...

Sometimes my friend leaves and I'm alone with them...
So I wonder among the corpses until I find the smell I crave... it's lying on it's stomach
backside in the air...
it's a male, but my hardness doesn't care...
I thrust and enter and there are no objections...
Sometimes my friend finds me atop of a corpse and he threatens to take away my hardness but then he shows me his hardness and we are friend again...

No one plays here
they see only darkness
and in the morgue when all is still I run among the corpses, barking...
