The indian man lost all of his land in Oklahoma
A man dressed in black gave some of it back to Oklahoma
And the man that they called Same
Washed the red out of the land in Oklahoma

Well back in the day the WPA in Oklahoma
Woody Guthrie would sing about the crops and no rain in Oklahoma
Well the rain never came
Woody Guthrie sang the pain in Oklahoma

1982 a bubblin' crude in Oklahoma
A forty-thousand foot well drillin' straight to hell in Oklahoma
Fifty dollars a goddamn barrel
Wish I'd never sold that well in Oklahoma
