If I had a dime for every single time
That something was promised to me
I'd have about 235 dollars
And not a lot of wait and see
What's gonna be

Hey, I'm jaded
And I shoulda saw it coming
Frustrated
With this roller coaster, bathtub toaster
Kick in the head

It ain't hocus pocus, you got to stay focused
If you want a good delivery
Somebody once said to keep it in the red
Well, that's the only color I see
It's gettin' to me

Hey, I'm jaded
And I shoulda saw it coming
Frustrated
With this mother lovin', head in the oven
Kick in the head

I forget to mention, you got to pay attention
If you ever wanna believe
A change will do you better, keep yourself together
Sit back and let it breathe
Let it bleed

Hey, I'm jaded
And I shoulda saw it coming
Frustrated
With this pornographic, jump into traffic
Kick in the head

Hey, I'm ready and willing
To jump off the building
Kick in the head
