Don't step to the plate if you feel you've got to hesitate lame reason why you complain about your state from the start it broke my heart I'd put it back together but I'm missing all the parts and one piece you need but more important-ly you open up your eyes to see you overcome adversity Think begin to win
you gotta pry the mind open
I am the kingpin
The subjects lifted I must be gifted the same closed mind, you're confined it's what you're trapped in I think it's safe to say you could forget about your lack of confidence just for a day or a minute Got time to give it a try, you'll find it might just be exactly what you needed Think begin to win
before you gotta pry your mind open
I am the kingpin
Swing for the fences your confidence is finally climbing its way back to your senses complete uncertainty has left the building before Elvis while he was asleep now you are living no longer giving your head an enema discovered what you had been missing it is belief you found within now that your mind is wide open
I am the kingpin
Swing batter swing strike one and a miss another pitch swing, strike two, where were you will I ever get a hit can I get another pitch for my drummer will I ever get to see first base
