I was born "The Master of Death", creation of Hell
"Lucifer's Breath"

Sent to kill drifting through time, entering souls controlling their minds

I killed the King, I shot the Pope

I raped your wife and then make her choke

Once as a priest I killed a goat

Now in the night I cut your fucking throat!

Day after day, year after year

Breeding the dead, the reason I am here

I never die - I'm Death it selves

I fill the ground and I fill the shelves

Electric chair - I pulled the switch

And in the past I drowned a Witch

I killed the Jews they threw in a ditch

I put the dead into their crypt

I stalk you/I hunt you/I chase you/I rape you!

I shoot you/I choke you/I stab you/I burn you!

I beat you/I axe you/I drowm you/I chop you!

They bleed as they plead as they cry and then die!
