Dedication breakup

so you want to start a new life that's ok go regain your independence and fly a result so ugly a process so beautiful go and throw it all away and i'll be fine just as long as you don't say it unless you mean it don't say it don't say you love me human love has got a shelf life it gets stale a born on date an expiration in time synchronize watches set the alarm as you leave i'll hold the door with a smile just as long as you

somebody told me that love falls like rain sooner or later it comes back down again in vicious way
