Here I go again
Cold and lonely nights
I wish your body next to mine
Just imagining, you're here holding me
The thought of you just burning me inside
People say you'll end up hurting me
If only they could see what I see
They'd know
CHORUS
Your love, the one thing in life that
I'm sure of
Light of my life
Baby, shine on
Make me believe you're the right
One for me
Say you'll be, forever be,
Light of my life
Move me with your words
And your tenderness
Reach the part of me
I never knew was there
I just wanna thank the moon and the stars
Up above
Someone out there must have heard my prayer
Don't why we waited so long
I only know we belong in each other's arms
CHORUS
I might be a million miles away
But i never lose faith
Never let me down
When all others left me, you were there,
Yes, you were
Light of my life
Light of my life
One love, one thing in life that i'm sure of (oh, baby)
Shine on, make me believe you're the right one, the right one for me
(light of my life)
Say you'll be, forever be,
(light of my life)
Guide me through the dark times

Give me something to believe
(light of my life)
The light of my life
