(what you want)

I got it

(what you need)

I give it

CHORUS

I'm gonna give you my undivided loving baby

I want your body, mind, heart and soul

Come on and give me your undivided loving baby

You'll taste the sweetest love you've ever known

Say you don't know what you've got till it's gone

It's easy to forget the beauty in someone

Taking them for granted, you're with them every day

Little by little the love slips away

When you love someone, really love somebody

You've got to learn, learn to let the feeling show

Once I had someone, someone who really loved me

Won't make the same mistake, this time I'll never let you go

CHORUS

I want you, I want you

Think of all you've done for me words cannot express

The joy I feel inside you brings me such happiness

Working through the day just one thing on my mind

I can't wait to be alone with you tonight

When you love someone, really love somebody

Show me how you feel in every way

Show me how you feel, show me that you need me

Hold me close, promise me you'll stay

CHORUS

You'll taste the sweetest love

The sweetest love you'll ever know

You'll ever know

You'll taste the sweetest love

I want you

You'll taste the sweetest love

The sweetest love you'll ever know

I'm never gonna let you go

You'll taste the sweetest love

I'm never gonna let you go

Come on and give me your undivided loving baby

Undivided love

I want you

Come on and give me your undivided loving
I want you
I'm gonna give you my undivided loving baby,
undivided love
I want you
You'll be divided by heart and soul, heart and soul
Come on and give me your undivided loving baby
You'll taste the sweetest love you'll ever know
(repeat to fade)
