(Thompson/Foreman)

Always you ! (Hands up) points at you
Always you ! (Hands up) points at you (hands up)
Always the innocent the innocent to blame
Guardians of the Islamic revolution take aim
But dare doubt the British institution
And forever carry the shame
Whilst evil Red Armies stitch an open wound
Us sympathisers fund their own doom and it's Always the innocent, the innocent are placed the blame
Always the innocent, the innocent exit in vain
Everyone has got their own precognition
We all have the basic rights to what we believe
Why do you mess with religion just leave me to my own beliefs
Now you've raised the backs of the hatchet man
More tea for the tiller man
Always the innocent, the innocent take the blame
Mmm ain't it always the same the innocent
Keep marching on
Guardians of the Islamic revolution take aim
But dare doubt the British institution
And forever carry the shame
Whilst my next door neighbour studies TV stars
My next door saviour takes giant steps to Mars
Always you ! (Hands up !) points at you
You ! You !!!!! Youuuuuuu !!!
