Will it make me feel even Will it make me feel right Will it solve all my problems Solve my life

Make me a believer Make me a believer

Lost Something is lost Alone Dying alone Make me a believer

Because it makes me feel even Because it makes me feel right Because it solves all my problems Because it solves my life

Lost Someone is lost Alone Dying alone Make me a believer

Its in my blood Its underneath my skin Beneath my skin Its underneath my skin

Your in my blood Your underneath my skin Beneath my skin Its underneath my skin

What will you make me What will you make me

Does it make a difference who I am When I'm alone Does it make a difference who I am When I'm alone

Make me a believer Make me believe Make me a believer Make me believe
