And it's hard to think positive
When people you considered friends, turned out to be fucking pricks.

And maybe if I tried a little harder, I could see it from their point of view.

And maybe if I tried, I would understand, but I'm not gonna lie.

And maybe if I stayed out a little longer,
Maybe if I drank that bottle of wine,
Maybe if I did the drugs that they did maybe things
would be fine.

I can't, I won't, I don't relate to you.
Yes, I know this is true.

And I've given up on a friendship with you,
You can keep your dollars and cents.
And I've given up, I've got a problem with your attitude,
A real problem with it.
