[Verse 1:]

Am I awake, I can't tell
I'm feeling like I just fell (just fell)
A thousand meters back to earth
From a cloud (yeah)

[Hook:]

Try to get up but can't manage
I'm stuck in some kind of paralysis
I can't do what I used to without you, without you

[Chorus:]

Since you left back (left back)
Been trying to fill a void
But you're the missing piece of this puzzle
I feel like I'm (like I'm) some kind of toy
And you've opened me up and taken
My battery, my battery, my battery
Can't function without
My battery, my battery, my battery
I need you here with me

[Verse 2:]

Where am I, where'd you go
The answers I don't know
But I'm seeing mirages of you
Right here, that's when I

[Hook:]

Try to get up but can't manage
I'm stuck in some kind of paralysis
I can't do what I used to without you, without you

[Chorus:]

Been trying to fill a void
But you're the missing piece of this puzzle
I feel like I'm (like I'm) some kind of toy
And you've opened me up and taken
My battery, my battery, my battery
Can't function without
My battery, my battery, my battery

I need you here with me

[Bridge:]

I know it might sound cliché

But I need you baby

You wait a life

And it kept me going, going, going, going

[Chorus:]

Been trying to fill a void

But you're the missing piece of this puzzle

I feel like I'm (like I'm) some kind of toy

And you've opened me up and taken

My battery, my battery, my battery

Can't function without

My battery, my battery, my battery

I need you here with me
