Yeah I feel like the force of nature could make you sing like a bird released If what you seek is the wise man's treasure you know it's buried beneath your feet You know you look like faded picture I see the cracks freezing on your skin and as the world slowly turns and hits you that the thieves of the night are coming to take you in

For smoking all my stash
and burning all my cash I bet you knew right away it's all over town that the sun's going down on the days of your easy life.

I bet you knew right away you dope you don't know where it's at It's all over town that the sun's gone down and it's high time to pray.

Yeah I feel like the force of nature
could make you sing like a bird released
If what you seek is the wise man's treasure

You know you look like a faded picture I see the cracks frozen on your skin
and as the world slowly turns and hits you then the thieves of the night
are coming to take you in

and burning all my cash
I bet you knew right away
it's all over town that
the sun's going down
on the days of your easy life.

It's all over if you're begging me please then get on your knees and pray.

For smoking all my stash
and burning all my cash
I bet you knew right away
it's all over town that the sun's gone down
and it's high time to pray
